You may choose to learn a second Martial Arts. To do so:

1. Remove any energy cards from your current Skills deck and your new Skills deck.

2. Count your remaining cards in your current Skills deck and remove the bottom half, rounded down, from the game.

3. Shuffle new Skills deck and take the number of cards you removed in step 2 from the top of the deck, and add them to your current Skills deck.

4. Choose three energy types from the 6 combined starting energy types of both Martial Arts. This is your new starting Energy group.

5. From the removed energy cards, choose any combination that equals the amount of energy cards removed from your old Skills deck.

6. Shuffle the selected energy cards into your new Skills deck, place in Skills deck spot and remove unused cards from game.
